

CONGRESO POSGUERRAS
75th ANNIVERSARY OF THE END OF THE SPANISH CIVIL WAR
Madrid, 3-5 April 2014

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Seminario Complutense Historia, Cultura y Memoria and the 'Posguerras' Project sponsors are pleased to announce the International Conference 'Posguerras. 75th anniversary of the end of the Spanish Civil War', to be held in Madrid on 3, 4 and 5 April 2014. The conference is intended to provide a forum for reflection on recent contributions to the study of the consequences of the Spanish Civil War. The aim of the event is to discuss new trends in Spain's post-war history. The Conference will be divided into eleven parallel sessions on the following topics:

- I. The bankruptcy of Spanish Modernity after the Civil War, 1900-1936
- II. Resistance, Repression and Social Control
- III. The Scientific and Cultural Exile
- IV. Historiographies: The Spanish postwar in the context of global post wars
- V. Workshop on the Teaching of the Spanish Civil War and Francoism
- VI. Insertion, Isolation, and International condemnation
- VII. Mass Media, Propaganda and Religion
- VIII. Women, Sexuality and National Identity
- IX. War, Popular Culture and National Reconstruction
- X. Traumatic Memory, Conflict and Post-conflict
- XI. Spanish postwar literature: Tolerance, Resistance and Collaboration with the 'legitimacy discourse'

Abstracts of a maximum of 350 words must be submitted via email to congresoposguerras@gmail.com. Abstracts should include title, name, affiliation, and email contact. All abstracts must indicate clearly the addressed Conference topic. Abstracts and papers are accepted in English, French and Spanish. The language of the conference will be Spanish. The final deadline for paper proposals is October 31, 2013. After submission is closed, all abstracts will be reviewed by the Session Chairs. Accepted abstracts will be published in the Conference Website. For further details please visit: <http://geografiaehistoria.ucm.es/congreso-posguerras-75-aniversario-de-la-guerra-civil-espanola>
