

MANAGING WARSHIPS AND FLEETS IN ANCIENT GREECE

Organisers

Fernando Echeverría (Complutense University)
Chiara M. Mauro (Complutense University)

* Times: GMT-4 (New York), GMT+1 (London), GMT+2 (Madrid), GMT+3 (Tel Aviv)

Session 1 - Ships and Shipbuilding

14 June - *10:00/15:00/16:00/17:00h.

<https://meet.google.com/khu-owen-gmt>

Mills McArthur (Southern Adventist University)

"Military campaigns and the location of shipbuilding in Antiquity"

Pascal Olejniczak and Emmanuel Nantet (University of Haifa)

"Auxiliary ships in Greek and Roman fleets"

Chiara Maria Mauro (Universidad Complutense de Madrid)

"Greek fleets in transition: Changes in shipbuilding between the 8th and the 5th centuries BC"

Session 2 - Institutions and Financing

26 June - *10:00/15:00/16:00/17:00h.

<https://meet.google.com/irf-nhgx-hbi>

Fernando Echeverría (Universidad Complutense de Madrid)

"Managing warships and fleets in the Homeric world"

Dorothea Rohde (Universität Bielefeld)

"The trierarchy in Athens in the 4th century BC: What motivated the Athenian liturgists to spend large sums on the fleet?"

Vincent Gabrielsen (SAXO Institute, Copenhagen University)

"Crewing ancient Greek fleets: Manpower demand and institutional innovation"

Session 3 - Ports and Installations

28 June - *10:00/15:00/16:00/17:00h.

<https://meet.google.com/qab-tksx-tvo>

David Blackman (University of Oxford)

"Some questions on military harbours"

Anna Salzano (Università di Salerno)

"Harbour terminology in the ancient Greek world. An archaeological approach"

Ioannis Nakas (Center for Hellenic Studies)

"Construction technologies, shipbuilding and the use of the Hellenistic harbours of the Mediterranean"

Bjorn Loven (Danish Institute Athens)

"Floating in time. The problematic chronology of naval bases and harbours"

Session 4 - Navigation and Mobility

5 September - *10:00/15:00/16:00/17:00h.

<https://meet.google.com/aps-grfu-ozg>

Pascal Arnaud (Université Lyon)

"The ship moving through the space of a naval port: Entering the port, laying up, entering the shipsheds and vice-versa. A couple of questions"

Stefano Medas (Università di Bologna)

"Navigation and logistics of ancient war fleets. Remarks from the Punic Wars case"

Adolfo Domínguez Monedero (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid)

"Rule the waves'. Greek fleets as an element of intimidation, influence and domination"

Session 5 - Political and Military Power

8 September - *10:00/15:00/16:00/17:00h.

<https://meet.google.com/kbx-www-npj>

Hans van Wees (University College London)

"The Corinthian navy and its uses, 600-425 BC"

Philip De Souza (University College Dublin)

"Human resources: The key to managing warships and fleets in ancient Greece"

Louis Rawlings (Cardiff University)

"The sails of two cities: The naval conflicts of Carthage and Syracuse"

William Murray (University of South Florida)

"Ships as weapons: The complexities behind successful ramming warfare"